Add the following at the end of the Introduction:

Since the content of those dictionaries evolves according to industrial innovations and constant improvement of technology in cutting tools, a Maintenance Agency has been established for the purposes of:

- correcting errors in the entries of existing classes and properties;
- adding new properties to existing classes;
- adding new classes and their properties;
- managing the status of those properties and classes;
- migrating the dictionary to subsequent editions of ISO 13399 (all parts).
